

Strategies, Guidelines and Opportunities

Monday 15 November 2021, Videoconference

Link to the webinar: <https://esrf.zoom.us/j/94425624235?pwd=VXRteWs5Snc1TXVQUHZycjNKaTBEZz09>
Webinar ID: 944 2562 4235 Passcode: 718750

13h00-13h10 Introduction: Jean-Luc Pellequer (IBS)

13h10-13h50 Session 1: What is Open Science?

1. Bernd Pulverer (Chief Editor of EMBO Reports & Head of scientific publications at EMBO) Transparent Publishing, Preprints & Open Science: how to share reproducible data

13h50- 15h15 Session 2: How to apply Open Science?

2. Johan Rooryck (Leiden University, cOAlition S Executive Director) Plan S and cOAlition S: an integrated set of policies

Pause 10'

3. Lucie Albaret (Librarian at the Univ. Grenoble Alpes Library) Depositing in an open archive : What are my rights? The law for a digital republic
4. Sophie Rio (Librarian at the Joint ILL-ESRF Library) Examples of French deals with publishers
and Martin Koehler (Head of the XFEL Library) Germany's DEAL: A nationwide "publish and read" agreement

15h15- 16h10 Session 3: Open science at the EPN campus

5. Andy Goetz (Head of Software group at the ESRF) Research Data Management for FAIR Data and Open Science
6. Sophie Rio (Librarian at the Joint ILL-ESRF Library) Promoting Open Science: What we are doing at the joint ILL-ESRF library

16h10- 16h40 Round table

Organising Committee: Florent Bernaudat (PSB), Stéphanie Malbet-Monaco (ESRF), Erika Pellegrini (EMBL), Jean-Luc Pellequer (IBS), Sophie Rio (ESRF)